BOND SCHEDULE
(R.C. 2937.011; CR. R. 4, 4.1)

The court has established a bond schedule that permits a defendant in some types of cases to post a bond to secure his/her release from jail after arrest and prior to arraignment. The bond schedule is reproduced below.

This bond schedule does not apply to the following offenses, each of which require the defendant to be held without bond until arraignment:

- Any felony
- Any offense of violence (as defined in R.C. 2901.01, e.g., domestic violence, assault, aggravated menacing, menacing, menacing by stalking, violating a protection order, arson, riot, intimidation, etc.)
- Any probation violation

An appearance (10%) bond requires the defendant to also post a $25.00 state fee in cash directly to the court (R.C. 2937.22). The bond is subject to forfeiture for the defendant's failure to appear on the next, and all future, assigned court date(s).
